73 Mills It Is

By resolution, the council of the Town of St. Albert, have established the mill rate for 1967 at 73 mills subject to final approval of the Local Authorities Board.

The $40,000 originally written into the budget for the arena is out only as far as the arena is concerned. It remains in the budget as a surplus to assist the town to improve its financial situation.

A plebiscite will be held to borrow $50,000 for additional financing for the arena.

Court of revision will be held on Oct. 2 at 7:30 p.m.

A by-law was passed amending business licence fees to provide for reduction of fees for those businesses who operate for only a portion of the year.

Business licence fees this year were set at 32-1/2 mills, the same as in 1966.

Council considered a petition from residents along the north river road requesting dust control. Staff was requested to prepare a report dealing with all gravel roads in the community requiring dust control. This will be considered at the next meeting of council Sept. 14.

A report was given to the meeting of the forthcoming St. Albert Pageant. Council decided to invite all members of the provincial cabinet to attend as guests of the town. They will be taken on a tour of St. Albert while they are here.

Due to a heavy agenda covering business for a month the meeting adjourned until Sept. 14.

The meeting was held on Sept. 11.

MAYOR'S COLUMN

Owing to pressing business commitments the Mayor's Column has not appeared for sometime. Dick Fowler, St. Albert's mayor, has informed the Gazette he will commence writing his column again in October.

Local Business Sold

Goodkey's Variety Store Ltd., one of the first retail outlets to establish in Grandin Shopper's Park is now operating under the new ownership of Armand and Bernice Donais of St. Albert.

John and Leah Goodkey, former owners, who so capably served the district through Goodkey's Variety with ladies' and children's wear, dry goods, sewing accessories and other small wares, have taken up residence with their family in Calgary, where John is employed by Banff Oil Ltd., as Captain flying a new F-27 Turbo Jet aircraft into the Rainbow Oilfield area and various points north.

The new owners have resided in St. Albert for eight years, and have been active in community affairs. Armand served a three year term on the public school board, and for the past two years has held a seat on town council. He is vice-chairman of the Sturgeon Health Unit board and immediate past president of the St. Albert Curling Club. Bernice served for two years as chairman of the St. Albert Association of Girl Guides of Canada and has for the past six years headed up the various fund raising campaigns for the Retarded children and more recently the Aphasic Society. She is a charter member of the Father Lacombe Chapter L.O.O.F.E.

"We plan to continue the fine service record to the buying public established by Goodkey's", Armand stated, "with expansion into a good basic line of teen clothing which is very badly needed in St. Albert. We will also be putting in a much larger stock of yard goods with a complete range of sewing accessories for the home seamstress."

The store will be renamed "THE KELLY ANN SHOPPE LTD."

Tennis Winners

The St. Albert Tennis Club held a club tournament at the Town of St. Albert Tennis Courts on Sept. 10.

In addition to the junior and senior tournaments, a barbecue was arranged and there were about twenty-five or thirty people on hand.

Winners of events were: Boys Singles - Philip Parsons, Boys Doubles - Philip Parsons and Myles Parsons

Ladies Doubles - Judy Wood and Bernice Parsons, Ladies Singles - Judy Wood, Mens' Doubles - Floyd Maybee and Jack Harding, Mens' Singles - Ron Werbecki.

The season is rapidly drawing to a close but we look forward to seeing a vastly improved number of people on the courts next season. Tennis is a fine sport, we have our excellent courts so make a point to be with us next year.

Registration Night

The Fall and Winter programmes of all the recreational clubs and organizations in St. Albert will be starting shortly. On Sept. 18 a combined Registration, Display and Demonstration Night will be held from 7 p.m. till 9 p.m., in the Community Hall. Displays and demonstrations will be given by some groups and representatives of the various organizations will be on hand to give out information and answer questions about times, places, fees, etc.

Monday night is the night for browsing - come along to the Community Hall and window-shop for an activity to keep you busy during the winter months. There will be some "hardy perennials" and some new activities which have been added to the list of attractions. If there is nothing there that appeals to you, someone will be present from the Depart-

Bulbs

On Sept. 18 the St. Albert Lions will be holding their annual "Light Bulb Sale". Proceeds go to the Lions Scholarship Fund so watch for that man with the bulbs.

Chamber of Commerce on Amalgamation

One of the many topics under discussion at the Chamber of Commerce meeting held at the Mocambo on Sept. 12 was amalgamation with Edmonton.

No decision was made but the pros and cons were fully studied. The end results of amalgamation for Jasper Place were noted with the obvious lack of services to roads and so on.

The Chamber of Commerce sign on the highway came under discussion. Local services clubs will be contacted to see if they wish their names added to the sign. The town council will be asked to erect directional signs to the shopping service areas.

Plans for the New Year's Eve Ball were made.

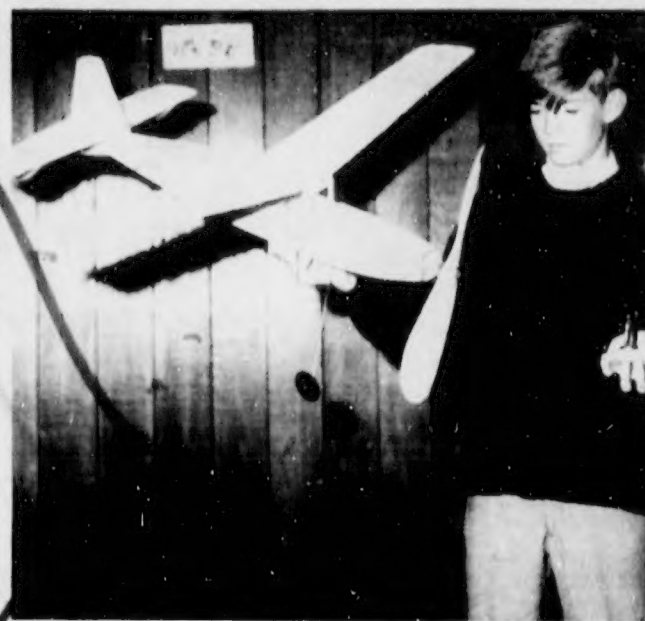

An election night rally will be held.

It was decided to ask W. Flynn, chairman of the hospital board, to be the guest speaker at the next meeting.

The Chamber will request the town council to provide them with the minutes of their meetings.

An open agenda had been planned for this first meeting of the season so that members could bring up any subjects they wished.

The executive were very disappointed at the poor turnout.

Ian Cooley, 11 Garden Crescent, holding his 3rd position rubber trophy won on Sept. 10 in Edmonton competitions. He also holds his Gypsy model plane that won him the award. Ian has previously won first place junior for indoor flying in Edmonton.

WELCOME WAGON

A hearty welcome is extended to new St. Albert residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fisher and family; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kettles and family; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ziegler and family of the Grandin Park ment who will be happy to hear suggestions, perhaps bring together people with common interests and generally act as co-ordinator or "go-between".

Representatives from the Community League will be in attendance to present information of their proposed winter activities.

CUBS & SEA SCOUTS

On Sept. 20, 8 p.m. registration night for the 4th St. Albert Cub Pack and Sea Scouts will take place at the clubhouse.

This meeting is for parents who wish their sons to participate in cub and sea scout activities for the 1967-1968 season.

Following registration a brief meeting will be held to reorganize the existing group committee for the 4th packs.

Due to new provincial and district charges made to the packs the registration fee will be $9.-$9.50 per boy.

Hon. R. Stanfield, former Premier of Nova Scotia and new leader of the Progressive Conservatives of Canada. Mr. Stanfield age 53, won the leadership over 10 other candidates, one of whom was Hon. John Diefenbaker. He now has to find a seat in the government and heal the wounds of the party. Most commentators seem to feel he is quite capable of both tasks.

Patronize these progressive
St. Albert Merchants

The St. Albert Gazette, bearing in mind its pledge to be the "community minded newspaper", is offering St. Albert merchants an exclusive promotional campaign entitled . . . "PATRONIZE THESE PROGRESSIVE ST. ALBERT MERCHANTS". We have come to realize the very difficult problem faced by every businessman in the town of St. Albert in being located so near to a large metropolitan centre. Our customers loyal as they may be seem to prefer the four mile drive to the city to do most of their shopping even though the same products and good service is available right here at home.

We feel that it is the duty and responsibility of the local newspaper to encourage a growing business community as well as to provide honest reporting of events and problems. The mutual ends of editorial and advertising can be most effectively met if both the business community, and the newspaper co-operate to the greatest possible extent in the promotion of our community. To this end then we are offering the following.

A twelve time promotional supplement to the Gazette starting August 30 and running to December 20, 1967. This is the most lucrative trading period for most businesses, and is the time of heaviest national and retail advertising. To take advantage of this we have organized an efficient and we hope effective advertising campaign, which is open to St. Albert merchants only. Each campaign date will feature a seasonal format (the August 30 edition for example will carry the "Back to School" format). These formats will be selected from the art services that the Gazette subscribes to. If you are considering this campaign please remember that we are not asking for contracts for the twelve time campaign, and we would prefer to allow you the advantage of selecting your own ad size and location. We will be calling on every St. Albert Merchant Monday or Tuesday of the Wednesday before the campaign date, and the decision to participate will be made at that time. In addition, the front page of the supplement will feature one business, with a three column by four and half inch picture of the manager and staff, and a short statement regarding the business that is offered.

The campaign dates are as follows: AUGUST 30, SEPTEMBER 15 and 27, OCTOBER 11 and 25, NOVEMBER 8, 15, 22, 29, DECEMBER 6, 13, 20th.

If you are interested in this campaign please call the GAZETTE at 599-7144, and I will be very happy to discuss the programme in greater detail with you at that time.

Political Realignment

I have just read Premier Manning's book, but was disappointed to find that it was NOT much of a challenge to thoughtful Canadians! His analysis of the disease afflicting federal politics is correct, but he has prescribed the wrong remedy.

His basic statement is contained on page 13, where he says: "In summary, the absence of clear-cut alternatives based on principles, the incapability of present parties to produce meaningful policy, the contradictory partisan divisions between people capable of agreement, the dissatisfaction with present political leaders, and the general unrest and disillusionment of the Canadian public with regard to federal politics, constitute ample evidence that we are not adequately prepared politically to meet the problems and opportunities of our second century of nationhood."

I completely agree with that statement.

What is Mr. Manning's solution? He suggests that Canada adopt a two-party system, which in actual reality would create a one-party system.

And who are the two parties?

He writes as follows on page 72: "...the Progressive Conservative Party of Canada, provided it is willing and able to undertake the fundamental reorganization necessary, has at the present time the greatest potential and most unique opportunity for becoming an effective vehicle to accomplish a meaningful realignment of federal party politics in Canada."

He also states that the Social Credit party should fall in behind the Conservatives. (page 76) "..... in the national field, the Social Credit Party can make its maximum contribution to the furthering of its own ideals and principles and more importantly to the well-being of the country as a whole, by doing everything within its powers to encourage and assist in bringing about an effective reorganization of the Progressive Conservative Party in Canada."

So much for our opposition in the Alberta Legislature for the next four or five years!

And who does Mr. Manning propose should be the other federal party, in opposition to the Social Conservatives? On page 80, comes the glad tidings: "Let the remainder of the Liberal Party who favor and endorse the present course of the Liberal Government clarify their philosophy and policies, and in conjunction with others like-minded, represent the major alternative to the social conservative position in Canada."

Thus will be created a one-party system in Canada under the guidance of the Social Liberatives!

Let us not kid ourselves, Mr. Manning, there is no difference between the Liberals, Conservatives and Social Credit. You said it yourself on page 13: ".... there are in the Liberal Party, the Progressive Conservative Party and the Social Credit Party, large numbers of individuals who strongly believe that the ownership and management of Canada's national economy ought to be primarily the responsibility of private citizens and associations of citizens, rather than a function of government."

We will not hear much heated debate between that bunch on the question of who should own our natural resources and major industries, will we?

Although there is not enough space here to discuss this book in detail, I wish to explode the fallacy that Mr. Manning is suggesting a realignment of federal politics. He is not.

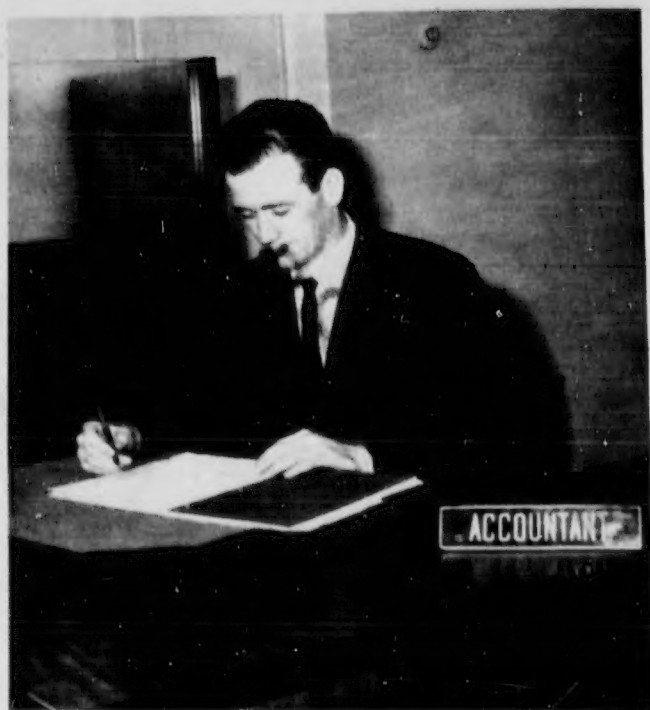

The mess that federal politics is in is due to the cause that he has stated - the complete lack of policy differences and political integrity of the Conservative and Liberal Parties, but adding Social Credit fantasies to either side is not going to change the situation one iota. Neither of the old-line parties will or can stand up for us because they are controlled by big business.

In a book, called Party Politics in Canada, page 109 it states: "The traditional practice has been to have standing Finance Committees, staffed by trusted party supporters in the corporate and business world, in the major cities - Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. The Montreal and Toronto Committees are the most important because these cities are in the areas which are the sources of most of the party's funds."

Which party? THE LIBERALS!

We know where the Conservatives stand - four-square against Socialism - and that is their prerogative. But let us not fool ourselves that the Liberals are any different.

Moreover, on page 87 of the above mentioned book (and reprinted from the Vertical Mosaic, by John Porter) the situation is neatly summarized: "In the long years that the Liberal party held power until 1957, there was no doubt a close association between the corporate world and the party in power. If there was any change over to the Conser-

ALLAN LONDON

The new accountant at the Bank of Montreal is Allan London. Coming here from Forestburg he replaces Ron Davies who was transferred to the 103 Street Branch in Edmonton.

Mr. London was born in Claresholm. He took his junior and elementary schooling there, attended grade 10 and 11 in Sterling and grade 12 in Daysland. He first entered the bank in Daysland in 1961 and has served in Vegreville.

After 1958 it was a change that involved little if any ideological strains. Judgements about which political party is "best" are more often in terms of the men in them and their ability to stabilize the field for corporate activity. This criterion can lead the corporate world to support one party provincially and another federally. Thus Social Credit in Alberta and British Columbia and the Union Nationale in Quebec all have made acceptable governments for the corporation."

The blame for the sorry state of affairs in Canadian federal politics lies almost entirely with the Liberals, who have leaned to the left when the major threat to their staying in power has come from the direction (as they are doing now) and then to the right when the threat has come from the Conservative camp.

This vacillation has caused the "grey sickness" to spread outward from Ottawa to infect this whole country with political anaemia and giving us a young country with a senile government.

The solution? Clearly a political realignment, as Mr. Manning says, giving the people a clear choice, with Conservatives on one side and the New Democratic Party on the other.

The Liberals should choose which side of the fence they wish to live, and then the Liberal Party itself should wither up and blow away as it has done in Britain and several European countries.

Only then will the fresh air of the Great Debate, which is so close to the Premier's heart, sweep across the face of Canada.

Norman G. Dolman

New buildings are a matter of the day for Mr. Allan who went through this in all three previous points. He says he was glad to find the job of renovating in St. Albert completed on his arrival.

Basketball and baseball are his favorite sports and in his spare time he refereed many basketball games. In Vegreville he was a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. London, who is single, resides at 37 Mill Drive likes what he has seen of St. Albert and finds the people most friendly.

Drama

The St. Albert on Sturgeon Players are having a barbecue on Sept. 16 at 8 p.m. at 47 Glenmore Crescent for members and anyone interested in joining the club.

Frank Turner was sponsored by the Drama Club to attend the teen-age drama seminar at Drumheller in August and has come back with some new ideas for the club.

Shirley Martin, president of the club, attended the adult seminar at Drumheller and is busy planning many work shops with the teachers that were at the school.

The club feels deeply honored to have Miss Marjorie Knowler to direct their November play. Miss Knowler, who has directed many plays in Alberta, will be holding readings in the near future.

Inter - Faith

Saint Albert Ministerial Association plans an Open-Air Inter-Faith Service of Worship Sept. 24 at 3:30 p.m.

In a spirit of thanksgiving the people of St. Albert are invited to attend the "Thanksgiving Service for Canada's Centennial of Confederation". In a spirit of unity, of love and of civism, we will raise our voices in thanks for the gift of a great country: CANADA. This is a centennial project for residents of all ages - young and old alike. We are living in a rich historical context -- the oldest town of Alberta. Let us set the pace and turn out in large numbers. Remember, Sunday, September 24th, 3:30 p.m. at the Open-Air Grotto behind the St. Albert Catholic Church.

Mio Kiskisewin

"Mio Kiskisewin" the St. Albert Historical Pageant was written by Keith D. Hamilton, a St. Albert resident for the past six years. Mr. Hamilton, who works for the federal government taxation division, has always been interested in the theatre. He wrote a play in his native Australia and has acted in the Dominion Drama Festival in Vancouver. "Mio Kiskisewin" is the Hamilton family's contribution to Canada's Centennial. The very extensive research for the pageant was done by Patricia Hamilton, Keith's wife.

PHILIP SILVER

Philip Silver, who is directing the pageant has an exceptional educational background in theatre. A graduate of the University of Alberta and the National Theatre School, the 24 year old native of Edmonton was recently appointed assistant artistic director at the Citadel. Mr. Silver returned to Edmonton after 18 months with the Centre Stage Theatre in Baltimore where he specialized in design work for the theatre and for the Baltimore Ballet Company. Prior to that he spent two years at the National Theatre School in Montreal after obtaining a B.A. at the University of Alberta. Mr. Silver executed sets for the Edmonton Opera Association's production of "Faust" earlier this year and will do the same for coming local productions of "The Barber of Seville" and "La Traviata". A few years ago Mr. Silver directed a highly successful university production of the musical "Li'l Abner".

"Mio Kiskisewin" will see some of Edmonton's best known actors featured in speaking parts. The pageant will be narrated by Walter Kaasa. Mr. Kaasa is a director of the Cultural Development Branch of the Province of Alberta. He has acted in numerous productions and is widely known in Alberta theatrical circles. Also participating in "Mio Kiskisewin" are John Rivet, Eric Candy, Judy Unwin, Philip Upright and Wilf Rowe. Mr. Rivet is a teacher of dramatics with the Edmonton Separate Schoolboard. He recently played the male lead in The Visit. Eric Candy is a well known Edmonton actor and T.V. personality. He has appeared in many productions and St. Albert audiences will remember him as Otto Frank in the St. Albert on Sturgeon Players' production of the "Diary of Anne Frank". Judy Unwin has played the lead in the light opera's production of "South Pacific". Judy has appeared in several melodramas and was in "A Taste of Honey" at the Walterdale Playhouse. Philip Upright is a St. Albert resident. Mr. Upright is currently in the Centennial Theatre for Youth's production of "Raiders of the Wind". Mr. Upright has participated in several Studio Theatre productions. Wilf Rowe has appeared in several plays in England. He recently played the very difficult part of the mute in "The Fantastiks" at the Torches Theatre. Mr. Rowe has also acted in a number of Citadel productions.

"Mio Kiskisewin" is produced by Twilight Productions, a group of St. Albert volunteers who banded together and gave freely of their time to make the St. Albert Historical Pageant a reality. Headed by Al Alain the group includes Helen Alain, Anita Ratchinsky and stage manager Terry Parsons. Mr. Parsons taught drama in Britain and is presently principal of Lamoureux School in the Sturgeon School Division. Choreography is by Alma Hughes and Gladys Smith of the St. Albert School of Dancing. "Mio Kiskisewin", a glimpse back into history, will come to Saint Albert Sept. 29 and 30 at 8 p.m. Location: the terraced hill behind Father Jan School in Mission Park. Plan to attend.

Deadly Sin of Gluttony

When I recently heard a colleague being jostled about his heavy smoking, he put up the defence that stopping smoking would certainly lead to his putting on weight, which would impose a greater risk on his heart than the danger to the lungs from cigarette smoke. There is a just grain of truth in this argument, though it is quite possible to stop smoking without adding pounds around the waist-line!

Modern life seems to revolve in alternating patterns of food-work-food-play-food-rest-food and so on. Wives spend countless hours preparing it, husbands whole evenings devouring it. Seeking to impress business colleagues, they lay on elaborate multi-course lunches. To entertain friends in the home without lading the table with lavish carbohydrates would be considered rude and inhospitable.

Is all this eating really necessary? Do stout paunches serve any purpose? Cannot our minds be allowed to range over other aesthetic delights besides the menu for the next week? Hasn't food become an obsession, a dominating influence in our lives, a bore?

Anyone over thirty who is steadily putting on weight might consider whether there isn't something undignified in bowing to the demands of a greedy stomach. By all means enjoy the delights of good eating and the fellowship which a lovingly prepared meal can stimulate, but beware the deadly sin of gluttony!

Going back a bit, does baby have to be forcibly fed with that extra two ounces four times a day; and can't the two-year-old be allowed to leave the table when he's had enough, not when mom has finally convinced herself he's properly stoked up?

Annexation

Morinville - On examining the overall plan of future land uses designated for the area to be annexed to the town of Morinville the council decided that they had no objection to the stockpiling of sand or the construction of a snow plow shed adjacent to Highway No. 2, in the north limits of the town.

The request had been made by the department of highways to the Morinville Town Council and was discussed by them at their Aug. 8 meeting. The secretary will advise the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission and send a copy of his letter to the department of highways.

Morinville Memos

Next Saturday evening a testimonial banquet and social evening for Hymie and Jack Kline will be held in the Morinville centre, sponsored by the Morinville Board of Trade. The Morinville Lions Club and the Morinville Sports Association. This occasion will give everyone in the district an opportunity to pay personal tribute to both Hymie and his father for the wonderful support they both have given to this community, while engaged in business in Morinville. Tickets may be obtained by any member of the above mentioned organizations at $2.50.

Mrs. Ann Kryskow, Mrs. Yvette Tellier, Mrs. Lil Boddez and Mrs. Pauline Cormier are to be complimented for sponsoring the Flotten School of Dancing studio for Morinville and district. Anyone interested may obtain further information by calling any one of the above mentioned ladies. Fee is only $6.00 per month.

The Lions Club will hold a turkey bingo for thanksgiving, they will appreciate your support and proceeds will go to community projects.

Do you want a free car check-up?? The Morinville Lions are sponsoring a free vehicle inspection in Morinville on Sept. 19-22 inclusive by members of the highway patrol. This is not compulsory, but it is a darn good idea for any car owner to have his car checked free of charge.

Now ladies, do not forget the big fashion show coming to Morinville Centre on Wed. Sept. 20. Fashions for teens, and children as well as all types for you gals. Free refreshments and a lovely door prize, what more for a dollar?

Now is house cleaning time and many useful articles of clothing and household items are to be discarded. Save any articles and help our Morinville girl guide and brownies. The annual rummage sale later will be the only money raising project for this group.

Delivery stations for the rummage sale, be it old clothes or household articles, may be left at Mrs. Rose Martel, Mrs. Ann Kryskow or Mrs. George Morris any time.

Gerard Rivet, 14 years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Rivet, has returned from a six week holiday at Montreal where he visited Expo, and many Aunts and other relatives which he met for the first time.

There are some 490 students enrolled in Thibault and George Vanier School. The Grade IX students will be initiated Sept. 13.

Donna Kryskow began school this term with a handicap, a broken arm, in a freak play accident at home. But that will not keep her from joining the dancing school.

Professor Jos. Surette has resumed his piano classes in Morinville, but will make his home in Edmonton.

Charles Olivier is now employed as maintenance man at Fort McMurray, the family plan to remain in Morinville for this school term.

Mrs. Tim Caouette was taken to hospital last week by ambulance after breaking a leg at home.

John Gauthier, 83, who last fall suffered a broken hip, was operated on in Edmonton some three weeks ago, when a new artificial hip joint replaced the broken one which refused to heal for the past six months. Mr. Gauthier is now walking on crutches, and has been transferred to Glenrose Hospital for therapy. He is expected soon to walk with a cane.

Mr. August Krauskopf and his son Charles celebrated birthdays on Sept. 9. Mr. Krauskopf Sr. was 80 and his son 40. A quiet family gathering was held for the occasion with a big birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krauskopf and family have returned from a holiday trip to Banff, Jasper and Kelowna B.C.

Mrs. Walter Heppler is a new resident in Morinville

Mrs. Ann Maslyk left by plane on Sept. 13 for Montreal, where she will attend the National CWL convention as St. Paul diocesan CWL president

Funeral rites

EUGENE COURNOYER, 83 LAID TO REST

Funeral services were held in St. John Baptist R.C. church in Morinville on Sept. 7, for the late Eugene Cournoyer, 83, who died on Sept. 3, after a long illness. The Rev. Father George Primeau officiated, assisted by Rev. Armand Beaupre and Rev. Lucien Tellier. Interment followed in the local church cemetery.

Born in Sorel, P.Q., Mr. Cournoyer came to Morinville in 1913 as a barber, and his first shop was located east of the present MacLeod store on main street. In 1916 he built his first poolroom where the present Co-op store is located. Some time later fire destroyed the entire block, which was later rebuilt.

In 1919 Mr. Cournoyer, who had been a car salesman for the late J. N. Cote Justin Hughes and family have moved temporarily into the former farm home of Walter Annett, until his new farm house is ready.

It was a busy month, Mr. Shenfield reported he had checked inventories and found them in order. Went to Edmonton and picked up Chemicals a number of times and distributed same to Gibbons and Morinville Seed Plants. Was with Jim Sharp on a number of occasions spraying Maple trees for aphid infestations. Put Chemical Demonstration Plots at A. McDonnell, R. Rigney, L. Tree spraying again was a major thing with Mr. Sharp being on the job almost steadily for the last half of June and most of July.

Fertilizer Plot signs were put out at Paul Ozipko's and at Archie Cameron's. Weed inspections took a fair amount of time since July 10, 1967, when Wm. L'Hiron-delle and L. Forcade started also, being sworn in on July 14, 1967. Issued one Notice to Destroy Weeds to F. McLaughlin to date, was out to Anchor Holdings, (Dr. Stewart) and found everything in order re gravel removal and found they will be temporarily closed due to no sales of gravel at the present time. Reports on Prohibit Seedings Notice are favorable to date and co-operation seems to be good. Grain Reports

The following are reports from local grain agents as of Sept. 1.

Barley: 3 CW and No. 1 feed grades with very good weight averaging 50 - 52 pounds per bushel and good yield in most places.

Wheat: Parks variety, grades No. 2 Northern and weighs 62 pound per bushel. The Oats is grading and yielding far above expectations. The area served by the Peavey elevator consists 2 mile north, 2 miles south, 8 miles east and some 3 miles west of the elevator located six miles north of Morinville on CN line.

The general yield is above what was expected a month ago.

Barley rate from 20 - 40 bushel per acre. On summer fallow 50 bushels and more. The Malting Barley situation is very bad, because the farmers are not sowing Olli varieties as required. The wheat is very good quality weighing 60 - 62 pounds per bushel and averaging 40 bushels per acre. Oats is not being harvested in general, and only samples have been brought to the elevator to date. It is estimated that two more weeks is needed before the harvest is completed in general.

The general outlook is pretty fair considering the lack of moisture in the west, resulting in a below average yield for that area. The quality of grain is very good. So far the barley has averaged 47 - 54 pounds per bushel. The wheat grades from 2 northern to 3 north-weighs between 62 - 64 pounds per bushel and averaging 25 and 35 bushels per acre. Oat samples are coming in. Some 600 bushels of Victory Oats rated 3 CW weighed 39 pounds per bushel and the yield was 35 bushels per acre on summer fallow.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY
by Cindy Allison
On Aug. 24 the Gibbons 4-H Garden Club held its annual Achievement Day. Presentation of corsages to the leaders was done by Edith Paradis. A sing-song followed, with everyone joining in.

Barbara Paradis spoke about her trip to Olds Vocational College.

A skit of the "Booming Town of Gibbons" came next in which every member dressed up as a person from Gibbons. They were each interviewed by our man on the street interviewer Linda Lamoureux. After the skit came the judges comments. Mrs. Hemsing, Miss Mulligan, and Miss Vlsscher gave their reports on 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th year projects.

Presentation of the silver tray for most points achieved on Achievement Day went to Barbara Paradis. Best garden award and best project book in 2nd year competition went to Edith Paradis. Efficiency winner was Margaret Elliott. God Save the Queen was followed by a lunch.

Thanks are extended to the judges and to the people who helped during the club year. This year was most enjoyable. All the girls are eagerly awaiting the club's reorganization in the fall.

point that has room to accept it. Durum, although on open quota must still be delivered to the point specified on the growers' delivery permit book.

A UNIQUE BOOK ON ALBERTA'S NATURAL HISTORY

BECOMES AVAILABLE SEPT. 14th

Alberta's four major associated gas and electric utility companies are pleased to announce the publication of a book on the natural history of our province, as a tribute to Canada's 100th birthday.

ALBERTA - A NATURAL HISTORY is the centennial project of Natural History and Learned Societies in Alberta, and from the ranks of these societies came most of the 30 distinguished authors and editors who produced the authoritative manuscript. The editor-in-chief was Dr. W. George Hardy of Edmonton.

Here, under one cover is revealed the fascinating story of Alberta's natural environment: astronomy, climate, geology, geography, the flora and fauna of the province, early natural history explorations, the study of natural history and the history of man.

Many of Alberta's outstanding photographers contributed color and black and white photographs to complement the text, and artists and cartographers were commissioned to produce maps and drawings.

The finished volume is 344 pages in length with over 500 illustrations. School children will find it a valuable reference, and all who read it will gain a greater knowledge and understanding of Alberta's natural environment and man's relationship to this environment.

In addition to providing financial assistance towards the production of the book, the utility companies, as patrons of the project, have been pleased to set aside over 2,000 copies for complimentary distribution to schools (grades seven to twelve), libraries and senior citizen homes throughout the province.

The patron companies commend ALBERTA - A NATURAL HISTORY to all Albertans and complement the editors, authors, photographers and artists, whose generous contributions of time and talent have made such a publication possible.

Patronage of "Alberta - A Natural History" has been the centennial project of:
CANADIAN WESTERN NATURAL GAS CO. LTD.
NORTHWESTERN UTILITIES, LIMITED
CANADIAN UTILITIES, LIMITED
NORTHLAND UTILITIES LIMITED

ALBERTA - A NATURAL HISTORY will be available in retail stores throughout Alberta on publication day, Thursday, September 14th.

The wisest penny we know.

We call it a power penny. In the past 20 years it has become "blue chip" currency — for it's the only kind of penny that has doubled in value. Every home maker can live like a queen (even without a butler or maid) with electrical servants like these.
